Injury Related to Vaccine
Administration (SIRVA)

Michael G. McLaren, Black McLaren Jones Ryland & Griffee, P.C., Memphis, TN, for petitioner.

Sarah Christina Duncan, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On September 11, 2018, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a left shoulder injury that was caused by an influenza (“flu”) vaccination in her left deltoid on November 1, 2017. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 13, 2019, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for he SIRVA. On February 13, 2020, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $100,000.00, representing compensation for her actual and projected pain and suffering.³ Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $100,000.00, representing compensation for her actual and projected pain and suffering, in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Chief Special Master

³ The Proffer indicates this amount has been reduced to reflect the net present value of the amount of compensation for Petitioner's projected pain and suffering. See § 15(a)(4).

⁴ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to Ruth Thompson should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following¹: a lump sum payment of $100,000.00, representing compensation for pain and suffering, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Ruth Thompson.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

Lump sum payable to petitioner, Ruth Thompson:	$100,000.00
